

Publication Commemorative Symposium 2022

“Anthropology of Tribulation and Hope from FUKUSHIMA”

— October 9(Sun) —

11:00 Opening Remarks: Tom GILL

(Professor, Department of International Studies, Meiji Gakuin University)

11:10 Lecture 1: Takuya TSUJIUCHI

(Professor, Faculty of Human Sciences,
Waseda University; Director, Waseda Institute of Medical Anthropology on Disaster Reconstruction; Medical Anthropology)

“Complex Structure under Issues of Division and Conflict after Fukushima Nuclear Disaster”

11:40 Lecture 2: Tom GILL

(Professor, Department of International Studies, Meiji Gakuin University; Social Anthropology)

“Sudden Exile or Wealth leading to Envy and Discrimination; Suffered by Enforced Refugees of Nagadoro District, Iitate Village, in Fukushima”

Commentator: Tsutomu TAGA

(Researcher, Tokyo Metropolitan Institute of Gerontology; Science of Social Welfare)

12:20 Lecture 3: Aya Hirata KIMURA

(Professor, Department of Sociology, University of Hawai'i-Manoa; Sociology)

“Exploring divergent meanings of citizenship in the aftermath of the Fukushima nuclear accident”
(Zoom from USA)

Commentator: Takahiro AKEDO (Associate Professor,
School of Economics, Osaka Metropolitan University
; Sociology)

13:00 Lecture 4: Tomoo HIDAKA (Lecturer, School of Medicine, Fukushima Medical University; Hygiene and Social Psychology)

“Position Transition from ‘I in Okuma’ to ‘Okuma in me’ Generating Narratives of Hope after Structural Loss of the Hometown”

Commentator: Takaya KOJIMA (Professor, Faculty of Human Sciences, Waseda University;
Architectural Environmental Psychology)

13:40 Lunch Break (60min)

14:40 Lecture 5: Aleksandr SKLYAR (Visiting Assistant Professor, University Studies Department, Colgate University; Socio-cultural Anthropology)

“Value Conflict among Voluntary Evacuee
Mothers from Fukushima: Protecting Children from Radiation, Respecting Family and Society”

Commentator: Takahiro IWAGAKI (Lecturer,
Faculty of Human Sciences, Kinjo Gakuin University
Social Medicine and Social Welfare)

15:20 Lecture 6: Naoko HORIKAWA (Visiting Researcher, Waseda Institute of Medical Anthropology on Disaster Reconstruction)

“A Daily Predicament, Searching for Hope: lives of single women forced to evacuate”

Commentator: Atsushi Ogihara (Professor, Faculty of Human Sciences, Waseda University;
Social Medicine)

16:00 Coffee Break (10min)

16:10 Lecture 7: Ayaka LÖSCHKE (Junior Professor, Institute for Near Eastern and East Asian, Languages and Civilizations, University of Erlangen-Nuremberg; Political Science and Sociology)

“A Victims' Movement against The Termination of Housing Support for Voluntary Evacuees” (Zoom from Germany)

Commentator: Kosuke HINO (Journalist)

16:50 Lecture 8: Marie Weishaupt (PhD Candidate, Graduate School of East Asian Studies, Freie Universität Berlin)

“From Self-evacuee to Returnee: Radioprotection and Social Appropriateness in the Aftermath of the Fukushima Daiichi Nuclear Accident” (Zoom from France)

Commentator: Taisuke KATSURAGAWA (Associate
Professor, Faculty of Human Sciences, Waseda
University; Clinical Psychology)

17:30 General Comment: Kosuke HINO (Journalist)

18:00 Closing

Date : October 9(Sun) am11:00~18:00, 10(Mon) am10:00~17:50(JST)

Held simultaneously with ZOOM(Application required from September 20th at WEB site:<https://wima.jp/>)

◆Organizer: Waseda Institute of Medical Anthropology on Disaster Reconstruction(WIMA)

◆Co-organizer: MITATE Lab. Post-Fukushima Studies

Language: Japanese (Zoom with English caption)

“Anthropology of Tribulation and Hope from FUKUSHIMA”

— October 10 (Mon) —

10:00 Tatsuaki GOINO, Saeko TAKARAMOTO

(Graduate School of Human Sciences,
Waseda University), SSN(Shinsai Shien
Network Saitama)

“Final Analysis Report of Questionnaire Survey in 2022 by WIMA&SSN”

10:40 Lecture 9: Cécile ASANUMA-BRICE (Chercheur CNRS, co-Director IRP CNRS Mitate Lab. Post Fukushima Studies)

“Reconstruction of hard-to-return zones from the perspective of structural violence”

Commentator: Hiroshi KITAMURA (Councilor,
The Institute of Politics and Economy for Public Interest Foundation; Political Science)

11:20 Lecture 10: Shuzo HIRATA (Associate Professor,
Department of Child Studies, Sendai Seiyō Gakuin College)

“For Overcoming Division and Conflict—From the dialogue between young victims and researchers”

Commentator: Kazutaka MASUDA (Associate Professor,
School of Letters, Mukogawa Women's University;
Science of Community Welfare)

12:00 Lunch Break (50min)

12:50 Panel Discussion (A):

“Idea, Plan and Hope to Dissolve Division and Conflict after Fukushima Nuclear Disaster”
(90min)

14:20 Coffee Break (10min)

14:30 Keynote Speech: Kenichi IDO (lawyer,
Head of Defense Counsel)

“The 3.11 Children's Thyroid Cancer Lawsuit”

“Current Movement of Children's Thyroid Cancer Lawsuit after Fukushima Nuclear Disaster”
(90min)

16:00 Panel Discussion (B):

“Q&A Session after Lecture of Kenichi IDO, Esq”
(50min)

16:50 General Comment: Susumu SHIMAZONO

(Professor Emeritus, Tokyo University; Institute of Grief Care, Sophia University)

17:10 Closing Remarks:

Takuya TSUJIUCHI (Director of WIMA),
Cécile ASANUMA-BRICE
(co-Director IRP CNRS Mitate Lab.)

17:30 Closing

Date : October 9 (Sun) am11:00~18:00, 10 (Mon) am10:00~17:50 (JST)

Held simultaneously with ZOOM (Application required from September 20th at WEB site : <https://wima.jp/>)

◆Organizer: Waseda Institute of Medical Anthropology on Disaster Reconstruction (WIMA)

◆Co-organizer: MITATE Lab. Post-Fukushima Studies

