

Contents

Illustrations	7
Notes on Contributors	11
Acknowledgments	15
Introduction
Kyushu at the Center Annick HORIUCHI and Pierre-Emmanuel ROUX	17
Part I Transnational Encounters, Circulations, and Negotiations
1 The Negotiated Surrender of a Japanese Pirate Fleet: A Watershed Moment in the History of Kyushu-Chosŏn Relations, 1396–1400 Damien PELADAN	47
2 Maritime Conditions and Daimyo Diplomacy: The Strategic Advantages of Hirado's Harbors for Dutch and English Trade (1609–1641) Frederik CRYNS	83
3 The Merchant Kiya Yasaemon and the Dutch East India Company: A Close Relationship Forged through Contacts in the Trading Posts of Maritime Asia Keiko CRYNS	109
4 Unexpected Encounters, Diplomatic Overtures, and Cartographic Knowledge: Southeast Asian Castaways in Seventeenth-Century Nagasaki Pierre-Emmanuel BACHELET	131
5 Nagasaki Trade and the Regional Market of Kyushu in the Eighteenth Century PENG Hao	157
6 Smallpox in the Ryukyu Islands: Local Treatment, Maritime Disease and the Transmission of Medical Knowledge, Seventeenth to Nineteenth Centuries Angela SCHOTTENHAMMER	189

Part II Local Cases of Reception, Appropriation, and Dissemination

- 7 Dazaifu-Hakata: A Gateway for the Introduction of Chinese Culture in the Song Period
ENOMOTO Wataru 229
- 8 Knowledge and Skills between West and East: The Jesuit Mission Press in Kyushu (1590–1614)
Fiona KARCZ 255
- 9 Books and Monks: The Nagasaki Trade of Buddhist Books in Early Modern China and Japan as Seen from the Hakusai Shomoku (1694–1754)
WU Jiang 277
- 10 Building Authority in the World of Painting: Chinese Merchant-Artists Seen through Takebe Ryōtai (Ayatari)'s Gafu
WANG Ziqin 305
- 11 The Diffusion of Dutch Studies in the Early Modern Kumamoto Domain
OSHIMA Akihide 345
- 12 Incorporating Foreigners within the Status System of Satsuma: The Preservation of Korean, Ryukyuan, and Amamian Otherness in Kagoshima
Rebekah CLEMENTS 369
- 13 The Gisai League: Networking and Western Studies for the Imperial Cause in Saga (Edo-Meiji Transition)
Noriko BERLINGUEZ-KONO 395
- Index 433